U.S. residents hit Jackpot with 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls

Up for grabs for the next 2-days: Casino Rolls loaded with rarely seen American Eagle Ike Large Dollar Coins just like the old Casino Slots paid out, all coins are decades old and never to be minted again by the U.S. Gov't

► For the next 48 hours only: Choose individually to make your own set, or get all 21 and get three of the rolls free

■ VEGAS SLOTS: Shown above is a post card from the famous Dunes Casino. The hotel opened on the strip in 1955. Over the years, millions have flocked to the world famous Las Vegas Casinos like the Dunes hoping to hit the jackpot. Of course many hit big time, and now for the next 48 hours everyone who calls will feel like a winner too. That's because the last 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls filled with American Eagle Ike Large Dollar Coins like those that filled the "loose" Casino Slots decades ago are now actually being handed over to today's callers who beat the 2 day deadline.

"It's like hitting the jackpot on an old Vegas Slot Machine decades ago," said Mary Ellen Withrow.

That's because for the next 2 days everyone can get these rarely seen 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls, but only those who beat the 2-day order deadline.

These full 15 count 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls are filled with historic American Eagle Ike Large Dollar coins like the ones from 1976 and earlier that were used decades ago in slot machines in the world famous Casinos.

It's amazing that these Old Vegas Casino Rolls are up for grabs. Just holding one in your hand reminds you of walking down the Vegas Strip in the glory days of Elvis, Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis Jr., Peter Lawford and Joey Bishop. It just makes you feel good.

"I'll tell you this, it's the best gift you could ever give someone. It's actually the perfect gift for any occasion. Everyone you give one of these 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls will never forget your generosity and they'll be the envy of all who see them," Withrow said.

"We're bracing for thousands of U.S. residents who will be calling to get these 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls over the next 2 days. That's because these rolls are not torn, faded, ripped or beat up. They are in brand-new pristine collector condition. And here's the best part. These are full 15 count 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls loaded with the same American Eagle Ike Large Dollar Coins like the coins used to fill the world famous casino slot machines decades ago, and there can never be any more so there's no telling what they could one day be worth," Withrow explained.

Today's callers need to remember this. These are not ordinary rolls of coins you get at a bank or credit union. These 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls contain old American Eagle Ike Large Dollar coins commemorating the Rat Pack days of the early 1970's when Las Vegas Casinos were all the rage. These rolls are now being released from the private vaults at the Lincoln Treasury, each with 15 U.S. Gov't issued American Eagle Ike Large Dollar Coins dating back to 1976 and earlier.

Now, Lincoln Treasury has released 21 exclusive casino rolls. Today's readers can choose their favorite individual designs or choose all 21 for the price of 18 (you'll get three rolls free). The everyday price of each roll is $255.00 and at that price, collectors snap them up. But today, you can get each roll for just $98 until the deadline expires. The best way to see these rolls is to go online to: LincolnTreasury.com/casino21 and you will see each roll in detail plus read a little bit about each one and the significance of the artwork to the history of Vegas.

We won't be surprised if thousands of people claim all 21 rolls. That's because after the rolls were sealed with these U.S. Gov't minted American Eagle Ike Large Dollar Coins, each verified to meet a minimum collector grade quality of very good or above, the dates and mint marks are unsearched to determine collector values and the rolls are now securely sealed. That means there's no telling what's in each roll.

"My advice, get as many as you can, stash them away in a safe place to pass down from generation to generation," Withrow said.

"Just imagine how much these remaining 'Old Vegas' Casino Rolls could be worth someday. The American Eagle Ike Large Dollar Coins alone are decades old and are never to be struck again by the U.S. Gov't," Withrow confirmed.

Withrow knows a thing or two about money, she is retired 40th Treasurer of the United States of America and now is the Executive Advisor to the Lincoln Treasury.
